

Abundance Update

23rd Aug 2013

We've had a very late start to the fruit picking - and it's just a month to go until Abundance Fruit Day! Sat 21st Sept 11am-2pm at St Mark's Church garden and hall (behind Wimbledon Library).

This is our event to raise funds to keep Abundance Wimbledon running. And it's also a day to showcase the things people can do with all the free fruit around Wimbledon.

We'll have lots of stalls - all fruit-related. Selling jams, chutneys, fruit cakes, fruit pies, making fresh fruit juice using the fruit press, providing information about looking after your fruit tree, making fruit pies, longest peel competition, Wimbledon honey, jam tasting.

To make the day a success, we need lots of help:

- We need volunteers to help run the stalls. If you can spare an hour or two on Sat 21st Sept 11am-2pm - or on Fri 20th Sept to help with preparations - please let us know.
- We need things to sell. If you are making jams, chutneys (anything made with local fruit), and have a jar or two to spare, please donate it and we'll sell it on one of the stalls. With everything ripening so late, it's going to be a rush to have enough produce to sell, so any donations are really appreciated.

If you can help with any of those, please get in touch (by email or phone).

And even if you can't do any of the above, you will help make Abundance Fruit Day a success by coming along. You will be very welcome. So please put it in your diary.

Many thanks
